

Maria Townsend is the face behind one stop shop insurance conglomerate InsuredStash.com, located in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Townsend is a graduate of Winston Salem State University, where she received a BA in Business Marketing.

After graduation Townsend launched her career working as an insurance agent and the Marketing Director at The Health Insurance Store. Also becoming the NAACP Health Chair from 2014-2015, and serving in the community giving seminars on the Affordable care Act(ACA) and serving on discussion boards.

Townsend realized that her community was lacking knowledge in other insurance areas and became licensed in all lines of insurance(Health, Life, property, casualty, and Medicare). This helped pursue her dreams to launch her own agency in August of 2015, currently servicing 17 states throughout the US in the present year.

Assisting consumers and other insurance agents with all their insurance needs, including understanding risks, career advice for insurance agents through youtube, and currently assisting consumers find free dental clinics for individuals who can not afford dental care out of pocket through an initiative called Dentist Connect on Facebook.
